CORPORATION TAX

President Taft's Revenue Scheme Taken up By Senate.

ALDRICH CAUGHT IN TRAP

Unwittingly Declared That He Favored Tax on Corporations to Defeat Income Tax—Tillman's Tea Tax Defeated.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Washington, June 29.—With the tariff schedules disposed of and the door locked against the present intrusion of amendments upon them, the Senate today finally entered upon the consideration of the income and corporation tax questions as connected with the tariff bill.

While the Senate was more than four hours in formally coming to the question of the taxation of incomes the subject received more or less incidental attention while the tea provision was under consideration and it was during that stage of the proceedings that the most interesting occurrence of the day took place. This was the announcement of the real attitude of Chairman Aldrich, of the Finance Committee, towards the corporation tax provision, which he had introduced at the instance of the President.

It had for some time been whispered around the Senate corridors that the Rhode Island Senator had become an advocate of a tax on the earnings of corporations as the most effective means of defeating a general income tax amendment to the pending tariff bill but even the Senators intimated spoke very cautiously on the subject. Mr. Aldrich himself today removed the injunction of secrecy by stating his own position, which was in accordance with the rumors. He spoke in response to a question from Senator Clay and in so many words confessed his advocacy of the corporation tax as a means of defeating the income tax. He added another reason, which was that he thought for the next year or two there would be a deficit in the treasury receipts which he was willing to have made good by the income that would result from the proposed corporation tax. With this service performed, he thought the law could and would be materially modified if not entirely repealed.

This frank declaration from the Rhode Island Senator was seized upon by the Democrats as a confession that the corporation tax is a mere subterfuge to destroy the income tax, and they were not slow in "playing up" the development. Mr. Aldrich denied, however, that he had intended to characterize the corporation tax as a subterfuge and defended it as a legitimate means of raising revenue.

When the income tax question was formally taken up, Senator Lodge moved as a substitute for Senator Bailey's straight income tax proposition, a measure providing for countervailing duties against countries imposing duties on articles exported to the United States. Mr. Aldrich immediately moved the corporation tax provision as an amendment to the Lodge measure, thus giving the corporation tax the position of a "third degree" amendment, beyond which no further amendment can be offered in the Senate.

Senator Flint, who will have charge of the corporation tax provision in the Senate, spoke at some length in explanation of the provision and was followed by Senator Dixon who advocated the retention of the inheritance tax provision in preference to any of the income tax measures. Senator Flint expressed the opinion that at the rate of 2 per cent. on the net earnings of the corporations of the country the revenues would be augmented to the extent of $40,000,000 or $50,000,000.

BRANDENBURG IN THE TOILS

Seller of Spurious Cleveland Letter Now Charged With Kidnapping. Penalty for Crime is Life Term in Penitentiary.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, June 29.—Although Broughton Brandenburg was acquitted here today of the charge of grand larceny in connection with the sale of an alleged spurious letter of Grover Cleveland to the New York Times, he had only a few minutes of freedom. Before leaving the court room he was re-arrested and will be taken to St. Louis next week for trial on a charge of kidnapping his step-son, James Shepard Cabanne, 3rd. The maximum penalty for kidnapping in Missouri is life imprisonment. The author was taken back to the Tombs in default of $5,000 bail to await the arrival of the Missouri officers.

The verdict of acquittal on the grand larceny charge was reached within a few minutes after the presiding Justice had charged the jury that the question of genuineness of Cleveland's letter was immaterial and that even the question of the genuineness of the article was only a secondary consideration. The primary consideration, he told them, was whether the defendant had stolen $500, the price paid for the article, from the New York Times. They must acquit the defendant, he continued, if they found that the Times had not relied on Brandenburg's statements as to the genuineness of the article, but had relied rather on the reputation of F. S. Hastings, one of the Cleveland executors, whom they consulted before purchasing the article.

The extradition papers for Brandenburg's transfer to St. Louis are now in the hands of Governor Hughes, at Albany. It is expected that they will reach New York tomorrow. The kidnapping, which Brandenburg admits, occurred shortly after the writer jumped his bail while under indictment for the sale of the Cleveland article. He was found in San Francisco with the Cabanne boy, whom he had picked up in St. Louis.

A MURDER IN ATLANTA.

Bitter Feeling Caused Tragedy in Insurance Office—Victim.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Atlanta, Ga., June 29.—Donald M. Bain, aged 68, shot and killed Ernest G. Williams, aged 35, a fellow employe in an insurance office, at 5 o'clock this afternoon in a room on the third floor of the Prudential Building, in which both occupied desks. Charles B. Beardsley, the only eye witness, was shot in the arm by Bain, accidentally.

The shooting was the result of ill-feeling between Bain and Williams of more than a year's standing. This morning some heated words passed between them and this afternoon the quarrel was renewed while the two men were alone in the office. As Mr. Beardsley came in from an adjoining room, Bain began firing, the first shot striking Beardsley in the arm, inflicting an ugly wound, and two others, fired in quick succession penetrating Williams' body, death resulting almost instantly. Bain was locked up. He claims self-defense.

LOVED HER SLAYER

Mrs. Edith May Woodill Infatuated With Eastman.

HAD KNOWN HIM FOR YEARS

Letter in Ill-Fated Young Woman's Handwriting Couched in Most Sentimental Language. Latest Developments.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

St. Michaels, Md., June 29.—The feelings entertained by Mrs. Edith May Woodill towards her slayer, "Lame Bob" Eastman, were indicated in a letter signed "Edith", parts of which were found in the bungalow of the murderer and suicide last Saturday. The missive, which is in Mrs. Woodill's handwriting and couched in most sentimental language, was presumably sent to Eastman. It not only indicates a warm attachment for the man but seems to prove that she had known him at least a year. On the same paper in Eastman's handwriting is the following:

"Little Dear:—I cannot leave after our short——of bliss. With the coming of you and parting ever before me, if we meet in the unknown lets continue the blissful times that we spent here. I am with you in every thought."

The letter signed "Edith" contains the following passages:

"Is the iron immodest when it creeps through the loadstone and clings to its side? Is the seed immodest when it sinks into the ground with budding life? Is the cloud bold when it softens into rain and falls to earth because it has no other choice or is it brazen when it nestles on the bosom of heaven's arched dome and sinking into the blue—black infinity ceases to be itself?

"Is the human soul immodest, when drawn by a force it cannot resist, it seeks a stronger soul which absorbs its ego as the blue sky absorbs a floating cloud and as the warm earth swells the sea, as the magnet draws the iron?

"I do not feel myself to be bold or wrong or 'in myself' for drifting toward you as I do. I would not feel myself wrong to go straight to you tomorrow.

"There is ever and always some human soul to love and trust us, and whose confidence we would not alter. We are not of our own making and our lives belong to another, Brahma, who rules and is wise.

"As one who was unconcerned and in every line of it and I read only the same adoration that a year's absence would not shadow.

"And the wonder comes to me that you did not, could not, understand. Surely a life such as yours brings time understanding; you must know lewd from the modest, the untrue from the true.

"Dream of you, did I say? Long for you would be better, for every heart beat seems to cry out against the enormity of the crime that makes me no longer yours. All the best in everything seems only to exist because of you, and for you.

"I hate existence away from you. Why do men dare to lift up their voices against the blessed art in others, which is but a greater, stronger, warmer spark of God's soul than they possess, or can lessen the understanding we have one for the other, and no difference can make us forget?

"Remember me always, as you loved me best, and, though were you a—a bandit—a anything—my heart would beat in responsiveness to yours.

"Thine but asks instead, 'wilt thou be mine?' Love, by time one has grown to know its significance, has usually been made a degenerate thing; that is hard to recognize.

"Are we not blessed and know that no happiness can—."

Two letters written by Eastman were found on his body. One of them was addressed to George Taylor, station agent at McDaniel and told of the killing along the same lines as contained in the letter to his wife. It reads:

"Mr. Taylor—Enclosed find $10 to cover my indebtedness to you. I believe it ample. If not, will send difference.

"Appearances are against me, but I had no hand in the tragedy. The poor little girl was practicing the art of hooking a fellow from another girl who was under the influence of wine and hit her three times with a full bottle of champagne.

"The four immediately left and I removed the evidence of the crime and once more am making an effort to get bondsmen, for I don't want to get locked up.

"But if not successful and I can not persuade all parties to come up and take their medicine, why I will blow off the top of my crazy head, and in that case I wish you would kindly see that all letters found on me are mailed.

THE WRIGHTS FAILED

New Aeroplane Refused to Ascend at Fort Myer Yesterday.

SEVERAL ATTEMPTS MADE

Orville Wright Able to Make Short Flight—Lack of Power Cause of Trouble—Aviators Confident of Success.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Washington, D. C., June 29.—After making three unsuccessful efforts to get his new aeroplane into air today, Orville Wright made a short flight, encircling the Fort Myer aerodome.

Lack of power, due to a loose spark control, was finally determined upon by the two Wrights as the cause for the refusal of the machine to fly for more than a few hundred feet beyond the end of the starting place.

"A flying machine is like a horse" said Wilbur Wright after the trial. "If its new you have to get used to it before it will go just as you want it to. You have to learn its peculiarities. I am glad we learned what the trouble is and after a few more trials you will see some fun."

There was hardly a breath of air when the machine was taken out of its shed and placed on the starting track shortly after 5 o'clock. The motor was given a test and it worked very smoothly. Everything being in readiness, Wilbur Wright and Taylor the mechanic, each stationed himself at one of the propellers, ready to turn it, like "cranking" an automobile. Orville Wright turned on the ignition and his brother and the mechanic gave the propellers a twist. The latter whirled around at a great rate as Orville took his place in the operators seat. Wilbur stationed himself at the end of the aeroplane and ran along with it when Orville released the weight, which pulls it down the track and gives it momentum.

The machine rose as soon as it left the rail but appeared to be able to mount into the air but a few feet. The right wing veered towards the ground and struck the earth at its tip. The machine was swung completely around. Orville quickly stopped the motor. It was found that the canvas at the tip of the wing had been torn slightly by scraping on the ground. After the canvas had been repaired the machine was returned to the starting rail. It had traveled about 200 feet.

"I didn't have enough poower," explained Orville "Besides the wind is coming from behind me. There was a slight movement of the air from the north, but it was scarcely noticed.

At 6:30 the machine started again and the first mishap was repeated, with the exception that this time the left wing scraped the ground.

The machine was returned to a third trial and the crowd cheered lustily. Wilbur contended that the weight was not sufficient in front and he gave an illustration of his ingenuity by attaching a rather heavy vice on one of the skids, forward of the machine, and an iron clamp on the opposite side. Orville stuck to his theory that the power was not sufficient.

The third attempt was even less successful, the machine refusing to rise at all. The power was increased before the machine was brought back for a fourth attempt.

At 7:45 on the final trial, the machine rose to a height of about 15 or 20 feet. Shortly after it ascended from the ground it showed signs of losing headway, but Orville kept on around the field, remaining in the air about fifty seconds and landing almost immediately in front of the starting track. As he stepped out he called to his mechanic.

"I found out this time what the matter was, Charlie. The spark shakes back to zero."

Wilbur seemed to regard the difficulties encountered as rather amusing, and being Orville's "big brother" had a few criticisms to make of him. Wilburg refuses to make any fights at Fort Myer saying that it is his brother's job, but he does most of the "bossing" and most of the tinkering.

Bishop Milton Wright, father of the two aviators, with their brother Reuchlin arrived at Fort Myer in time to see the tests. Tomorrow, it is expected another flight will be attempted.

HOUNDING TRAIN ROBBERS.

One Killed and Two Took Refuge in Old Tunnel.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Winnipeg, Man., June 29.—Detective Draper, of Spokane, with a pack of blood hounds has traced the Canadian Pacific train bandits that held up an express train last week at Kamloops into an old mining tunnel at Red Gulch, six miles east of Ashcroft, British Columbia. Detective Draper has sent for help, as the two men trapped are heavily armed and show fight. One of the robbers was killed by Constable Rucker yesterday. He wore clothes bought in Spokane. A valise full of dynamite was found in a boat deserted by the robbers.

THE ASHEVILLE BANK CASES

Technicalities do Not Avail Maj. Breese and Others Charged With Wrecking Institution—Trial Set for July 26th.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Asheville, N. C., June 28.—In the U. S. District Court here Judge Newman this morning overruled the motions made by counsel for Joseph E. Dickerson, W. H. Penland and Major W. E. Breese to quash the indictment for conspiracy to wreck the old First National Bank of this city and set the cases for trial July 26th.

Judge Newman's opinion in the case is very lengthy and covers every contention made by the defendants' counsel. The defense based its motion on two grounds, first, that the grand jury had not been properly drawn in that the venire had called merely for a jury, and, second, that the bill of indictment had not been properly returned to the court in that it had been returned by the foreman alone and not by the whole body of the grand jury.

The court found that the grand jury which returned the indictment against the defendants marked "true bill" was properly drawn, that the indictment was returned into open court with Judge Purnell, the presiding judge, on the bench; that the indictment was read by the presiding judge in open session and handed to the clerk and properly entered in the record. Judge Newman drew a distinction between the manner of returning the bill of indictment in the Breese case and the Reneger and Angle cases, which were cited during the hearing on the motion to quash, and said that the facts were materially different.

Relative to the defendants making their plea in apt time and the objections raised by the defendants, Judge Newman said:

"The defendants knew, or ought to have known, as well when this indictment was returned as they know now how the bill was returned into court, yet they waited all these 12 years to raise the question. I am very much inclined to think that the objection comes too late and I am satisfied in view of what occurred last July and what was considered by the defendants under oath in the motion then made, that they are not entitled to be heard to make their objection in the manner in which he indictment was brought into court."

NEGRO BISHOPS' COMPLAINT.

Commission Decided It Was Unwarranted—Privileges Insufficient.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Washington, June 29.—Five African Methodist Episcopal church bishops, who complained to the Inter-State Commerce Commission that they were discriminated against by Southern railroads, and by the Pullman Company in transportation, dining car and sleeping car facilities have been informed by the Commission that their complaint was not warranted.

The bishops were Wesley J. Gaines, H. M. Turner, Evans Tyree, C. S. Smith and E. W. Hampton. Their complaint was directed against the Seaboard Air Line, the Richmond, Fredericksburg & Potomac, the Southern Railway, the Central of Georgia, and the Pullman Company. It was alleged that the day coaches furnished for negro passengers in the southeastern States were not equal to those provided for white people; that negroes were denied sleeping car accommodations and that they were refused food in the dining cars solely on account of their color.

At the hearing of the case the complaint as to the day coaches was abandoned in view of the weight of testimony to the contrary; and with respect to the dining car facilities the allegations were modified by concession. Most of the complainants and their witnesses testified that they actually did ride on sleeping cars.

It is held by the Commission that undue discrimination or prejudice was not shown and the complaint therefore was dismissed.

Although it took ten innings to turn the trick, the Wilmington Sailor lads won the second of the series from Raleigh yesterday afternoon by the score of five to four. Wysong was sent to the mound for the locals again on account of the sickness of "Rube" Howard, the third member of the locals' pitching staff, but he went up in the air in the third when the Red Birds began bunting and Levy was sent in to rescue the team from another bitter defeat, which he did in handsome style.

Hemp, the very first man up, singled to left, was sacrificed by Nichols and took third on a passed ball, while Smith walked and stole second. With one down Brodie then sent a stinger down to left and Smith and Hemp crossed the marble, the side retiring when Levy forced Brodie at second and was out himself on a fast double. Hart, first to face Wysong, fanned and Crozier and Haas were out from the infield. Wilmington was out in order in the second and for Raleigh after Hoffman was out, second to first, Brumfeld was safe on error of short, was sacrificed by Dawson and scored on Wright's hit to right for two sacks, being out himself trying to stretch the double into a triple.

It was one, two, three for Wilmington in the third and Rowe opened Raleigh's half with a triple to centre, scoring on Fulenweider's single to left; Hart bunted safely and Levy relieved Wysong in the box; Crozier sacrificed and Haas hit to left for two bases, scoring Fulenweider and Hart; Hoffman hit to short and was safe at first, Haas on third; Brumfeld was up and Haas was out trying a squeeze play, Brumfeld going out, pitcher to first.

With a lead of two runs for Raleigh, Smith opened the fourth by lacing out a triple to right and scored on Brodie's single immediately following; Levy flew out to first, Brodie was caught off first; Sharp singled to centre but was out trying second. Raleigh was out in order in her half of the fourth. It was ditto for both teams in the fifth and Wilmington's half of the sixth. Raleigh's sixth was dangerous when Haas, first up, was hit by pitched ball and he was sacrificed by Hoffman, but Brumfeld hit to Levy who killed Haas at third; Brumfeld stole second and Dawson was walked but Wright ended the hope by flying out to centre.

Wilmington was up and down in order in the seventh and for Raleigh after Rowe was out, short to first, Fulenweider was safe on error of second and was sacrificed by Hart; Crozier walked, but Haas flew to second. Both teams were up and down in order in the eighth and Wilmington tied the score in the ninth after Hemp and Nichols were out from the infield; Smith drew a pass and stole second with his comrade, Brodie, at bat; then the same Brodie lined a long one to right for two cushions and his pal crossed the rubber. Levy drew a pass but Sharp flew out to second. Raleigh was up and down in order in the ninth and the tenth came on. It looked sad when Jayes and Kite flew out, but little Conn laced out a neat one to left and stole second; Hemp then hit to centre for two bases, scoring Conn and winning the game. Nichols flew out to left. Raleigh's half of the tenth was a pass for Hart, sacrifice by Crozier, but Hart was out trying to steal third; Haas singled to ceptre, but Hoffman flew out to left.

MEMORIAL TO PRESIDENT SPENCER.

It speaks well for the railroad men at Spencer, the North Carolina headquarters of the Southern Railway, near Salisbury, that the Spencer Railroad Y. M. C. A. has inaugurated a movement to establish a Samuel Spencer Memorial Library in honor of the late President Spencer, of the Southern Railway Company, for whom the town was named, and who was killed in a wreck on the main line north of Spencer two years ago. Through the secretary, Mr. F. B. Stevenson, and the committee of managements, $3,000 will be raised among the railroad men of Spencer and upon the five freight divisions touching there, after which an appeal will be made to one or more well known philanthropists for additional funds for the library.

President Spencer was a progressive and liberal railroad president and took great interest in the moral and substantial welfare of the employes of the Southern Railway. He liberally aided the railroad Y. M. C. A. all over the Southern system and his good work deserves something that indicates that grateful hearts hold his kind deeds, generosity and benevolence in remembrance and desire to establish some lasting recognition of it.

The Southern Railway continues to follow the good example set by Mr. Spencer. On Monday Mayor H. C. Bueck, of East Spencer, received a draft of $500 from General Manager C. F. Akert, of the Southern Railway, at Washington, D. C., in payment of a contribution from that company to the East Spencer graded school building recently erected in that place. This last contribution makes a total of more than $10,000 in cash and property contributed by the Southern Railway Company for school purposes in Spencer and East Spencer.

WADESBORO'S AMBITION.

There is great rejoicing in the cities and towns along the Atlantic Coast Line's new link with the Norfolk and Western, under the agreement between the two railroad systems by which the projected Southbound Railroad from Wadesboro to Winston-Salem is to be completed. Wadesboro is specially jubilant and the railroad talk there is the biggest topic of conversation sprung in years.

Wadesboro is expecting big things out of the new railroad enterprise, and is ambitioous of having the shops located there. A correspondent says those who have been doubtful all these months now seem to feel the good effect of the efforts made by the promoters of the Southbound Railroad. The Wadesboro Commercial Club will get together immediately and go to work with a view to having the shops located there if possible.

So far as securing the shops is concerned, we believe that Wadesboro will have a good chance. That place seems to be the logical location for the shops, as Wadesboro will be the junction point of the Seaboard Air Line and the Coast Line's new Winston-Salem connection with the coal fields. Thus Wadesboro will have two lines connecting with the coal regions, and under any circumstances that town occupies an enviable situation.

A correspondent, telling of the jubilant feeling there, says "Wadesboro has never made much noise, but there has been steady growth during the past five years." He also goes on to say:

"It is reported that Mr. John T. Patrick, well known for his activity in industrial circles, has secured the promise of some new manufacturing enterprises. One fact is that Mr. Patrick has secured an option on a large parcel of land in the immediate vicinity of the depot and this land is situated just right for mills or other industrial plants."

Nearly every paper in the United States, in publishing the accounts of the trip of the scout cars from Atlanta to New York, contained the report of the scouts giving Mecklenburg county the credit for having the best roads between Atlanta and Washington. This shows that when a county is progressive the world will find it out in some way. Mecklenburg's good roads are a big advertisement for her.

The envious and malicious out of town papers in Florida now allude to Jacksonville as Jagsonville.

MAY BE SMALL TEMPEST.

A dispatch from Homer, La., June 27th, says:

"Declaring that the members of the Louisiana delegation in Congress 'as a unit voted for protection on lumber, in repudiation of the Denver platform, and have made speeches in favor of protection on many other articles,' resolutions were adopted by voters of Claiborne parish there yesterday of an exceedingly condemnatory character. It is asserted in the resolutions, 'our Senators and Representatives no longer represent the party that elected them, and they should forthwith tender their resignations'."

The significance of the above is whether Louisiana goes as Clairborne Parish goes or as Homer nods.

Walter Wellman, after making another trip with his balloon in search of the North Pole, now thinks that he will not be able to reach the Pole this Summer. We could have told Walter that before he left but didn't want to deter him from taking a Summer vacation that would keep him in the public eye as a man that is trying to do something.

"How did it happen that Dr. Eliot omitted from his list of greatest works the books of Theodore Roosevelt?" inquires a contemporary. Because he got up his list without asking Teddy to suggest one or more books.

It is said that Little Joe Brown, the new Governor of Georgia, doesn't cuss. Yes, but people who write that sort of thing never heard him express himself privately about the recent Governor Hoax Smith.

Jacksonville Times-Union: "Senator Bailey says the platform was framed by a crowd that knew nothing about what they were doing." Bailey talks like a man who was put out of the meeting.

A New York man was fined in a court for "giving his wife a rap." The court would have made it more satisfactory to the wife if it had compelled the skate to give her the kind of wrap she wants.

Little Joe Brown's Georgia enemies will now be going around calling him Little Governor Joe Brown.

CURRENT COMMENT.

—The killing in New York of a young girl by a Chinaman suggests to one newspaper the criticism that American men as a rule are too indifferent as to what becomes of their daughters. The criticism is well founded. American men know more about the lures and snares of the worldly life than American women know. But they are often too busy accumulating wealth or riding some other hobby to give the serious consideration that it deserves to the problem of shielding their daughters.—Greensboro Telegram.

—The New York Journal of Commerce prints a column of reports from the condition of the cotton crop in North Carolina and it strikes us that the summary is about right. It is to the effect that cotton in the State is about two weeks late, owing to the continued rains, and is badly in need of cultivation. Grass pervades practically all fields and a number of correspondents report red and yellow leaves. Stands are generally poor and the plant small, but with a continuance of the fine weather now prevailing it is thought that conditions will rapidly improve. Some scarcity of labor is reported and lice are damaging cotton in a few sections, but a few more days will put farmers ahead. Compared with last month, when condition was 86.4 cotton shows a considerable deterioration from incomplete reports. A year ago at this time percentage condition was 89.4.—Charlotte Chronicle.

—In a lengthy discussion of the protection feature of the new tariff bill, The Wilmington Star says that "judging from the tone of the North Carolina press the writers generally in their comments on the positions of Senators Simmons and Overman on the tariff consider that they are on the job at Washington, doing the best they can and acting with good judgment on the facts as they see them in the line of their duty to North Carolina and the South. They may or may not be right in every instance, but there are a whole lot of people at home who believe they are doing the right thing under the grave responsibilities and perplexing problems which they have to face. Many differ with them honestly, a few intolerantly, but it will be found that most North Carolinians have confidence in their Senators and give them credit for their judiciousness and good working horse sense." It is a fact that the majority of the papers of the State are either backing up the course of Simmons and Overman, or are not condemning it. Some of the papers that do differ from our Senators do so respectfully. We know of but two or three that are rantankerous. The Star makes a safe prediction when it says that "when the North Carolina Senators come home to give an account of their stewardship they will come mighty near giving good and acceptable reasons for all they have done."—Charlotte Chronicle.

TWINKLINGS.

—Tim—Would you scream if I kissed you? Tessie—I suppose you flatter yourself that I'd be speechless with joy.

—"Did you have a good time at the Sunday school picnic, Bobby?" "I should say so," answered Bobby, enthusiastically. "They was three fights."—Buffalo Express.

—"I never have no luck." "Neither do I," responded the other citizen. "Therefore I keep out of enterprises requiring large gobs of luck to be a success."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

—Smith slapped Jones on the back. "Hello, old chap!" he gurgled familiarly. "I'll wager $50 you don't recall me!" Jones gave him an icy stare. "You win!" he said, passing on.—Lippincott's.

—Mrs. Sharp—Have you filed those divorce papers for me? If so, I want you to stop them at once. Lawyer—Have you made it up with your husband? Mrs. Sharp—Good gracious, no; but he's just been run over and killed by a motor car and I want to sue the owner for damages.—Illustrated Bits.

DAY'S DOINGS IN RALEIGH

Five New Corporations Chartered—Oil Inspectors Receiving Instructions Preparatory to Beginning Work—A. & M.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., June 29.—Five new enterprises with capital aggregating $252,000 were chartered today as follows: Henkel Horse and Mule Co., Hickory, capital $50,000 by L. P. Henkel and others; Panacea Springs Automobile and Electric Transfer Co., capital $125,000 by Eugene Johnston and others; The Elkin Hardware Co., capital $50,000 by E. F. McNeer and others; The John W. Crowell Co., Lexington, $2,000 for coal, wood, ice and building material business, Hamlet Insurance and Realty Co., capital $25,000 by C. H. Morrow and others.

The International Fire Insurance Company, New York, is licensed to do business in North Carolina.

The ten illuminating oil inspectors are here to receive instructions from Commissioner of Agriculture Graham and Oil Chemist Syme as to the performance of their duties as inspectors when the new law goes into effect July 1st. Mr. Syme, the oil chemist, will instruct them especially in the use of the Elliott cup for the flash test which the State Board has decreed shall be not less than 100 Fahrenheit. These inspectors are to inspect all oils in their territory, test it as to flash temperature and send samples to the State oil chemist for analysis as to safety, objectionable substances, purity and luminousity. The new law will impose a tax of half cent per gallon on all oils sold in the State.

Dr. Burton J. Ray, son of Superintendent John E. Ray, of the State School for the Blind, has received appointment as an assistant instructor in the chemical department of the A. & M. College. He is a Wake Forest and Cornell man.

DOCTORS' PRESCRIPTIONS.

It has been proved over and over against that the doctors of this country freely prescribe proprietary medicines in Latin for their patients until they are advertised to the public, after which time they consider it a duty to immediately condemn the very same medicine, not because the preparation is any less valuable, but because it is not "ethical" to prescribe an advertised medicine. There are, however many physicians of recognized standing broad-minded and successful enough to continue to prescribe such standard remedies as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which they know to be good.

—There was no session of the Recorder's court yesterday, owing to the indisposition of Recorder Furlong at his Summer residence at Carolina Beach. The Recorder was not feeling well Monday and went down to the beach on the early afternoon boat. He hopes to be able to be at his desk again today. The court was formally opened by Clerk Skipper, who recognized the witnesses for their appearance today.

FUNERAL OF MRS. MYERS

Last Sad Rites at St. James' Church This Afternoon.

The funeral of Mrs. Lossie deRosset Myers, whose sad and unexpected death occurred Monday evening, will be held from St. James' Episcopal Church at 5:30 o'clock this afternoon and the interment will be in Oakdale cemetery. The services will be conducted by Bishop Robert Strange, assisted by Rev. Wm. E. Cox, rector of St. John's Church, and Rev. Dr. Francis M. Osborne, of Charlotte. Many children and grand children of Mrs. Myers in various parts of the country have arrived to attend the funeral. Others will arrive today in time for the service.

The Star is indebted to a friend for the following very pretty tribute to the memory of Mrs. Myers:

"When a really good, faithful woman, a veritable "Mother in Israel," passes from this life to the better land something more than the mere announcement of the fact is demanded by the sad event.

"Mrs. Myers, whose sudden and instantaneous death shocked her wide circle of acquaintances and friends, and brought inexpressible grief to her relatives, was a noble example of true womanhood. Kindly and charitably disposed towards every human being, cheerful in adversity, and sweetly patient under affliction, sympathetic and helpful to the utmost extent of her ability to all who asked or needed her service, brave and independent in spirit, and devoted to every requirement of her religion, she was indeed an exemplar of the highest type of true womanly virtue and fortitude.

"These few lines are written by one who knew her from the days of her bright and attractive girlhood, when she was a great belle, to the last hour of her life, and who will cherish her memory always.

"A devoted wife and mother, a humble Christian, an unwavering friend, she has taken up her habitation in the undiscovered country, and her works do follow her."

NEW PLACE OF AMUSEMENT.

Bath Houses and Dancing Pavilion at Greenfield Mill Pond.

Contractor W. J. Spooner is erecting for Messrs. Carter & Brice a large dancing pavilion and a system of bath houses at Greenfield Mill Pond, a short distance from the terminus of the street car line in the southern part of the city. Mr. Spooner hopes to have the buildings completed in about ten days when they will be thrown open to the public. The purpose of Messrs. Carter & Brice, it is stated, is to allow the free use of the large dance hall and to make a small charge for the use of the bath houses. There will be ample space in the dancing pavilion for refreshment parlors which will be opened as soon as the building is completed.

It is thought that the new amusement resort will be largely patronized as the need of just such a place has been felt for a long time by the people of South Wilmington.

Real Estate Transfers.

Deeds were filed for record yesterday as follows: American Suburban Corporation to James T. Trippe, two lots on eastern side of Wrightsville avenue, 126 feet from Metts street, 66x113 feet in size, consideration, $550; Lewis Bryant to J. W. Wayland, for $100 and other considerations, lot on western line of 10th, 66 feet north of Orange street, 33x100 feet in size, with privilege of four-foot alley through the length of the property; Louis H. Skinner and wife to Dockery Haywood, for $2 and other considerations, five acres of land in Cape Fear township, adjoining lands of Frank Scott and others.

FUNERAL NOTICE.

The relatives and friends of Mrs. Lossie deRosset Myers and of the family are invited to attend her funeral services to be held at St. James' church this (Wednesday) afternoon at 5:30 o'clock. Interment in Oakdale.

The Subway Race.

Fayetteville, N. C., June 29.—Smith had things his own way this afternoon, while Sexton, formerly with Wilmington in the box for the locals, was hit hard, Fayetteville being defeated 9 to 2. James, of the visitors duplicated Thorpe's performance of the day before by smashing a home run with a man on first in the fifth inning. James' home run was the fourth on the local grounds in four days. Score:

Game at Wilson.

Goldsboro, N. C., June 29.—Wilson bunched hits at the same time Goldsboro bunched errors and Forbes kept things moving along by seven passes to first and three wild pitches, giving the visitors ten runs today. Anderson pitched a good game and had perfect support, thus the best the locals could do was to get caught at the plate. Features, the batting of Yerkes and Mills. Score:

"GRUNTS."

We won—but it was a 100-to-1 shot.

Captain Dick appears to have been right there with the purloining; to the extent of twice.

Swats for extra bases were as frequent as side wagers in a darkey crap tournament.

Wilson turned the trick on Goldsboro all right, Anderson applying about ten coats of kalsomine to those same Giants.

Glad we won the game, for the very simple reason we need it, and need it b-a-d, but really see no reason for burning red-fire.

Levy mounded very satisfactory after ascending the rubber, and allowed but two hits. Why was he not permitted to commence the affair?

Running Wysong in to slab after he had so unceremoniously taken leave of things mundane the day before, is, we confess, slightly some distance beyond us.

Why can't Hemp be placed in the field? He doesn't shine at short, and is by no means a safe man there; but his stick-work is good, and improving all the time, and it seems a shift could be arranged.

Orie Brodie starred with the club for Wilmington, and Hemp was a close second; while Captain Smithy trailed one to the suburbs for three stations. For Raleigh Haas was the Kandy Kid.

The Fayetteville Observer says: "Sexton, the A. & M. pitcher, who has been playing with Wilmington, joined the locals today. He is quite an acquisition to our Strong Staff of moundmen.". Please linger on the black letters. To help the Highlanders strong staff of twirlers we simply hobbled ourselves. Ask the Fans!

Local bugs will be interested to know that Bussey won his game for Richmond yesterday with Roanoke, 4 to 2, Richmond taking first place again in the percentage column. Bussey allowed but four hits and his work on the slab was gilt-edge. This League has "never looked quite the same" without Bussey.

SOUTHERN MAP COMPANY.

New Revolving Sun Print Frame Just Installed in Work Rooms.

One of the busiest of the many busy sections of the big Southern building at Front and Chesnut streets is the headquarters of the Southern Map Company, on the fifth floor, which recently opened for business in this city and the success of which has been phenomenal. The company has recently installed a revolving sun print frame which has been extended from one of the western windows of the offices and work rooms and from which the company is now turning out a very high grade of blue and brown prints that have been quite favorably spoken of by those in position to judge of such matters. This is in addition to the very elaborate machine also in operation in the work rooms for making prints from electricity. The new frame is now in operation and both machines are kept quite busy with orders from architects, builders, surveyors, engineers and others requiring work of this kind in the two Carolinas.

PARSON WEDS THE GIRL

Decided it Would be Better Than Languishing in Jail.

Charged with seduction under promise of marriage Rev. J. R. Fagan, colored, pastor of Ebenezer Baptist Church and manager of an insurance firm, was tried before Justice George Harriss at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon, and at the conclusion of the hearing he decided to marry the girl he had wronged rather than go to jail in default of $300 bond. The ceremony was performed by a colored mininster by the name of Colin, the trial justice refusing to make the couple man and wife.

The prosecution consulted Justice Harriss yesterday morning with a view of withdrawing the warrant and stopping the proceedings, but the magistrate steadfastly refused, stating that he would not compound a felony by allowing parties to come into his court, swear out a warrant and then hush up the matter. Again at the trial an attempt was made to "pay out," and the justice made it plain that his court was run according to the statutes made and provided. He said that he had no jurisdiction in the case and that he could do nothing less than send the matter to the Superior Court unless the parson wanted to marry the girl, when the action would be dismissed.

DEATH OF MISS FARROW.

Young Lady Passed Away Yesterday After Lingering Illness—Funeral.

The death of Miss Maie Augusta Farrow, which occurred yesterday morning at 8:30 o'clock at the home of her brother, Mr. H. F. Farrow, No. 406 Brunswick street will be learned of with sincere sorrow by her many friends and those of the family. She had been in ill health for some time and little hope had been held out for recovery by the members of the family.

Miss Farrow was a daughter of Mrs. Augusta Farrow and the late W. C. Farrow, and was in the 24th year of her age. She was a devoted member of St. Andrew's Presbyterian church and a woman with a lovable disposition. Besides her mother there are surviving three sisters and one brother, Mr. H. F. Farrow, and Mrs. John J. Johnson, of Wilmington; Mrs. E. W. Stone, of McDonald, and Mrs. D. B. Sellars, of Lakeland, Fla.

The funeral will be held this afternoon at 4 o'clock from St. Andrew's Presbyterian church, conducted by Rev. A. D. McClure, D. D., the pastor. The remains will be interred in Oakdale cemetery.

HELD FOR RECORDER'S COURT

Louis Carter Given Hearing Before Justice Bornemann Yesterday.

The charge of assault with deadly weapon against Louis Carter, colored, accused of shooting and dangerously wounding Thomas Reynolds, colored, at the home of Lillie Evans on the night of May 21st, was investigated in Justice Bornemann's court at 10 o'clock yesterday morning, and the magistrate found sufficient evidence to hold the defendant for the Recorder's court today, being placed under a $100 bond for his appearance.

Reynolds testified that he was shot by Carter as he entered the home of the Evans woman to see his wife, who left him that day, following some disagreement. Carter, Minnie Reynolds and Lillie Evans swore that Reynolds shot himself; that Reynolds, upon entering the house, fired the only shot that was heard in the building that night. From the testimony of the defendant's witnesses the justice inferred that they wanted to tell him that Reynolds fired at the wall on the opposite side of the room and that the bullet rebounded, striking him in the right side. The justice frankly told the witnesses that he did not believe their story and showed his doubt more plainly when he sent the case on to the higher court. Geo. L. Peschau, Esq., represented the defendant.

EXCURSION FROM CHARLOTTE

Three Hundred Happy Pleasure Seekers Arrive From Queen City. Trip to Sea Today—Lumberton Excursion.

Three hundred happy pleasure seekers arrived in the city at 2:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon from Charlotte, being passengers on the eighth annual excursion of the Pritchard Memorial Baptist Church, of that city, to Wilmington. Not a single incident happened on the way to mar the pleasure of the excursionists.

The train left the Seaboard station in Charlotte at 8:10 o'clock yesterday morning, arriving here at the time mentioned, and beat the time of the former excursions by at least two hours. The weather was ideal and the crowd was made up largely of the members of the congregation which made it pleasant in a social way. As usual the order was excellent. Mr. W. F. Dowd, under whose direction the trip was arranged, stated last night that although the crowd was not so large as on former excursions the trip was undoubtedly the most successful.

The Tidewater Power Company had special cars waiting at the station to meet the visitors, many of whom went directly to Wrightsville Beach, where special rates were granted them at the Tarrymoore and Seashore, a courtesy the excursionists duly appreciate. Quite a number preferred to remain in the city over night with friends. The excursionists will be here until Thursday morning.

The visitors will take a trip down the Cape Fear River and to sea today on the steamer Wilmington, the boat leaving the wharf at the usual time and returning about 3 o'clock in the afternoon. On account of the special trip the steamer will not make the regular 2:30 o'clock trip down the river today, but on the special trip will make the regular stops at Carolina Beach and Southport. The usual trip to the pier will be made at 5:15 o'clock and the passengers for Southport will be transferred to the steamer Southport at that point.

Another excursion is scheduled to arrive in the city this morning, coming on the Seaboard from Lumberton. The train will be run under the auspieces of the Baptist Sunday School of that place and will be in charge of Mr. Frank Gough, former excursion manager. The train will be operated in two sections, the first section being due to arrive shortly after 9 o'clock. Returning the train will leave here at 7:30 P. M.

MUST MAINTAIN CITY PRISON.

Board of Aldermen Cannot Legally Abolish Calaboose.

The county and city attorneys have given it as their opinion that the city must maintain its prison and no effort will be made to enforce the order of the Board of Aldermen that the calaboose be abolished. The discontinuance of the city prison was brought up before the Board of Aldermen at a meeting the latter part of May and a resolution was passed to the effect that after June 1st all the prisoners should be confined in the county jail.

The question was immediately raised as to whether the Board had the power to abolish the city prison and the attorneys for the county and city were requested to look into the matter. In the meantime the officers continued to use the city prison. It is understood that a similar question arose in Asheville shortly after the establishment of the police court and that it was found that the city had to maintain a prison.

The placing of all the prisoners in the city prison keeps the number of prisoners in the county jail at a minimum and it is understood that the institution has not made expenses since the establishment of the court. The sheriff is required by law to maintain the jail whether he makes expenses out of it or not.

LIST-TAKERS ABOUT THROUGH.

Little Property in Wilmington Township Not Listed.

The list-takers of the county will complete their work this afternoon and after the compilation the books will be turned over to the Register of Deeds. List-Taker Bunting stated yesterday afternoon that there were very few people in Wilmington who had not listed their property for taxation. The citizens have listed earlier this year than usual which will not only make it easier on the list-taker and his clerks on the last day, but upon the property owners as there will be no great rush. It is understood that the citizens in all the townships of the county have been about as prompt as the Wilmington people. It is too early yet to get even an intelligent estimate of the amount of taxables in the county this year.

Mr. Bunting will close his office at 5 o'clock this afternoon.

At the Bijou Today.

The features of the bill at the Bijou today will be "I Have Lost Today," and "Mr. Pallet Goes Out Landscaping." The former has to do with an elderly lady who apparently thinks more of her pet dog than she does of her husband, while the latter shows many amusing situations of a zealous exponent of the brush and pallet in search of prize winning subjects.

VETERINARY SURGEONS MEET

Eighth Annual Convention to be Held in Elks' Club Rooms Friday and Saturday—Interesting Programme Prepared.

The eighth annual convention of the North Carolina Veterinary Medical Association will be held in the Elks' Club rooms in this city Friday and Saturday of this week, and it is expected that some 20 or 25 prominent veterinary surgeons from various parts of the State will be in attendance. The State Board of Veterinary Medical Examiners will meet Friday to examine all candidates for the practice of veterinary medicine not previously registered. Some three or four applicants for license will stand the examination.

The visitors will begin to arrive in the city Thursday night. During their sojourn in Wilmington and at the beach the "horse doctors" will be handsomely entertained by the local members. The Seashore Hotel will be the headquarters of the visitors, but the meetings will be held in the city.

Friday afternoon will be given over to clinics. Saturday will be the busiest day of the convention when several interesting papers will be read and the annual election of officers will occur. Adjournment will be taken at 1:30 o'clock for luncheon and at 5 o'clock the visitors will go to Wrightsville Beach, where the convention will be formally adjourned. The following papers will be read Saturday: "Milk Fever and Its Peculiarities," Dr. W. G. Chrisman, Raleigh; "Acute Indigestion," Dr. J. S. Butler, Raleigh, "Progress in Tick Eradication in North Carolina," Dr. T. M. Owens, of Raleigh, inspector in charge; "Production of Hog Cholera Serum," Dr. G. A. NATION'S NATAL DAY

Will be Celebrated in Wilmington July Fifth This Year.

As the Nation's natal day falls on Sunday this year the usual Fourth of July festivities in Wilmington and the beaches will be held on Monday, July 5th, and the day will be generally observed by all classes of citizens. As usual entertainment will be provided at Wrightsville and Carolina Beaches and will probably be of a more attractive nature this year than formerly.

The Tidewater Power Company has made arrangements for handling a very large crowd and from Wrightsville Beach, the entire car equipment being at the disposal of the public and the half hour schedule will be maintained.

The annual regatta of the Carolina Yacht Club will be of more than usual interest on account of the new boats which will be in the race. The contest for supremacy will be witnessed by a large crowd of people who will line the course. The Tidewater Power Company has arranged several attractive events for the day, among which will be a high dive and canoe race in front of Lumina. A souvenir dance will be the attraction at night. The Lumina Orchestra will furnish music during the day and evening and special programmes are being arranged.

The ladies of the Christian Church will be in charge of the celebration at Carolina Beach and the steamer Wilmington has been chartered for the day. Four trips will be made, the last boat leaving the pier late at night. Music will be rendered throughout the day by the Columbia orchestra. Quite a few will go to Southport, where the members of the Boys' Brigade will be in camp.

DR. C. F. STROSNIDER

Again At James Walker Memorial Hospital—Completes Course.

Friends in the city will be interested and pleased to learn that Dr. C. F. Strosnider, who was formerly a physician at the James Walker Memorial hospital, has received the appointment from the Board of Managers to serve in the same capacity at the institution during the next 12 months. He has already returned to Wilmington and taken up his work. He left Wilmington last July and entered the Maryland Medical College, at Baltimore, from which place he has completed his course. He is a capable and popular physician who made many friends in the city while at the hospital on a previous appointment.

Charlotte Wants Next Meeting.

Charlotte is in the race for the next meeting of the North Carolina Firemen's Association and Tournament, which will be held this year in Asheville, beginning next Tuesday and continuing through Friday. In the event the Queen City delegation is successful they will ask that the meeting be held in May instead of June as it is considered the most pleasant of all months. It is not known yet who will go from the Wilmington Fire Department, but the city will be represented by ten or fifteen firemen. The railroads have granted the usual cheap rates and the round-trip fare from Wilmington with ten on a ticket will be only $8.25.

Women Who Are Envied.

Those attractive women who are lovely in face form and temper are the envy of many, who might be like them. A weak, sickly woman will be nervous and irritable. Constipation or Kidney poisons show in pimples, blotches, skin eruptions and a wretched complexion. For all such, Electric Bitters work wonders. They regulate Stomach, Liver and Kidneys, purify the blood; give strong nerves, bright eyes, pure breath, smooth, velvety skin, lovely complexion. Many charming women owe their health and beauty to them. 50c at R. R. Bellamy's.

Death of Little Daughter.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Wade Eubanks deeply sympathize with them in the death of their three-months-old daughter, Catherine Lee Eubanks, which occurred at the family residence, 810 Orange street, at 3:10 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The remains will be carried to Clinton, the former home of Mrs. Eubanks, this morning and the funeral and interment will occur there.

Little Son Dead.

The sympathy of many friends goes out to Mr. and Mrs. Wm. M. Fulcher in the death of their 16-months-old son, William M. Fulcher, Jr., which occurred at the family residence, 1146 South Front street, at 12:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The funeral will be held from the residence at 11 o'clock this morning, conducted by Rev. J. P. King, and the interment will be in Bellevue cemetery.

Bladen Street Excursion.

Quite a crowd of friends and members of Bladen Street Methodist church went down the river last evening on a moonlight trip of the steamer Wilmington. The boat went some distance beyond Carolina Beach pier and the evening was spent most delightfully. Refreshments were served.

DUNCAN AGAIN IN TROUBLE.

Former President of Cotton Mill Indicted in South Carolina.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Union, S. C., June 29.—T. C. Duncan, former President of the Union Buffalo Mills and other allied enterprises of this city and late head of the American Line Company, of Spring City, Tenn., was held for action by the grand jury today by order of Magistrate Walker after a preliminary hearing. John H. Morris charges Duncan with fraud on account of a check issued in December, 1906 on the Bank of Spring City, Tenn., when it is alleged there were no funds to meet it. Duncan was arrested several weeks ago, but was released on bail fixed at $1,500.

SCHOONER IS WRECKED.

Benjamin C. Frith Broke Away From Tow on South Carolina Coast.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Savannah, Ga., June 29.—The tug Cambria returned to Savannah today reporting the wrecking of the Schooner Benjamin C. Frith, bound from Port Royal, S. C., for New York, lumber laden. The schooner left Port Royal late yesterday afternoon in tow of the Cambria. While they were crossing the sound the hawser parted and the schooner, helpless, ran out upon Martins Industry light shoals. The master and crew were taken off in boats and safely landed at Port Royal. Today it is reported that the schooner is a total wreck.

LING HAD ACCOMPLICES.

Belief of New York Police on Account Movements of Elsie Sigel's Body.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, June 29.—Information is at hand tonight which for the first time since the discovery of the murder of Elsie Sigel 11 days ago, definitely establishes that Leon Ling must have had accomplices, and that, though a telegram signed with his name and in his writing was sent from Washington, he could not have been there on the date on which the message was sent. The police have also accounted in detail for the movement of the body as it was hurried hither and thither in panic, after the crime, up to the moment of its discovery in the bed room of Leon Ling.

But though the detective force has a dozen men in neighboring towns of New Jersey, and Inspector McCafferty reiterates tonight his confidence that the murderer will be caught, there is nothing known publicly from which it can be inferred that his arrest is nearer than it has been at any time during the past week.

The police had definitely and clearly established that the trunk was carted from the Eighth Avenue house in which the body was found to a Chinese laundry at No. 370 West 126th street and thence to Newark, N. J., whence it was returned to the room of Leon Ling, where it was discovered. It has been shown, too, that Ling was personally busied in moving the trunk about.

It seems clear that to have been at the various places mentioned Leon could not have spared the time for a trip to Washington. Those receiving him and the trunk all showed suspicious fore-knowledge of his coming.

WON'T ALLOW THEM

Salvation Army Captain Arrested in Raleigh For Street Preaching.

Raleigh, N. C., June 29.—Hon. J. S. Wynne, Raleigh's new mayor, has refused to allow members of the Salvation Army to preach on the streets and Captain Frank Winchester and wife are under arrest for attempting to hold street services in defiance of the order. The case is set for trial Wednesday and the Salvationists have retained J. William Bailey, former editor of The Biblical Recorder, as counsel. The city ordinance leaves the matter of licensing these street preachers to the discretion of the mayor. He says he has reason to believe that these people were run out of Norfolk, a brother, Charles Winchester, having been jailed there for deserting his wife.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Charlotte, N. C., June 29.—On 'Squire W. M. Long's place, five miles from Charlotte today, Pink Hunter, a negro, stepped into the cabin of Etta Faulkner, colored, leveled a shot gun at her and blew the top of her head off; then turned the gun to his own forehead and blew his own brains out. A note was found by the negro man stating that the woman was receiving attentions from other men and he would not stand for it. Hunter was married and lived in a house across the road from the Faulkner woman.

NEGRO MURDERER WAS RIDDLED

Georgia Posse Has Terrible Fight With Fugitive.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Adrian, Ga., June 29.—Fighting in a swamp with a cheap, small calibre pistol, Robert Jenkins, a negro, accused of murder, today held at bay a sheriff's posse until he had wounded two of them and then exclaiming, "Lord, have mercy on my soul" he dropped dead, riddled with rifle and pistol balls.

Jenkins last week shot and killed George Howell, a farmer ,and wounded Mrs. Howell. He was tracked to the swamp early today. The wounded posse men were not seriously hurt. They are W. S. Clements, who was shot in the foot, and Y. L. Hall, who was struck in the thigh by a pistol ball. Both live at Adrian. Practically every man in the posse sent lead into Jenkins' body.

Mrs. Howell, though her case is regarded as almost hopeless, has surprised the attending physicians by her vitality.

It is stated that Jenkins was discovered as the result of his efforts to obtain food from the home of a negro who refused to aid him and sounded the alarm as soon as Jenkins left the house.

The wife of Jenkins is in the jail here and considerable excitement has been caused by the assertion that she planned a double murder and ordered her husband "to shoot Mrs. Howell first." The negro's first shot struck Mrs. Howell.

Wrightsville, Ga., June 29.—The posse which shot to death Robert Jenkins today has been increased tonight and the report reaches here that Jenkins' wife will be taken from the jail and lynched. The wounding of two members of the posse by Jenkins has whipped the indignation of the men into a fury.

However, everything is quiet here at 12:30 this morning and there will be no lynching, the sheriff having removed the Jenkins woman to the Washington county jail tonight.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE

—Maxton, June 28.—The remains of Mrs. J. E. Singleton were brought to Maxton Friday from the Columbia Hospital, where she died from a disease known as pellagra.

—Lumberton Robesonian: The Croatans are making preparations for their annual picnic at Union Chapel in Burnt Swamp township, which is to come off the fourth Saturday in July. They expect to have several good speakers, a brass band and a big time.

—Williamston Enterprise: Solicitor Daniels' fees amounted to only $14. This was due to the remarkable improvement in the morals of the people, both white and colored. The small number of criminal cases gave much more time for the consideration of the civil calendar.

—Winston-Salem, June 28.—At a meeting of the directors of the Southbound Railroad Company, here this afternoon President H. E. Fries was authorized to advertise for construction bids, the same to be filed during July. The road will be built under the title of the Southbound Railroad, but will be financed and operated jointly by the Norfolk and Western and Atlantic Coast Line. Chief Engineer Cornell will be retained.

—Raleigh News and Observer: The postoffice at West Raleigh was broken into Saturday night and about six dollars, several books of stamps and a revolver belonging to the postmistress were stolen. Entrance was gained by placing a barrel near the window, removing the wire screen and breaking a pane of glass, after which the window was opened. Apparently no attempt was made to open the safe. The government postal inspectors have been notified and officers are now working on the case.

—Sanford, June 28.—Those who have waited long and patiently for electric power from Buckhorn were most agreeably, surprised this morning to find that the power had been turned on at the Sanford Cotton Mills and everything moving like clock work. The power had been contracted for sometime ago but difficulties arose from time to time which delayed matters, but all has at last been gotten in good shape and the power was turned on this morning at nine o'clock, thus moving the great machinery of one of our largest manufacturing plants. Just ten years ago today the present stockholders of the Sanford Cotton Mills met and organized and decided to begin at once the building of the mill. The success of the mill has been phenominal and now that they have secured electric power the expense of running the mill will be greatly reduced. The mighty engines and boilers are all silent today, and the great lines of heavy shafting are standing idle, yet the machinery is moving along as if nothing had happened. Other plants will no doubt soon take on the power, and certainly all new ones will take on to it at the start.

—Raleigh, June 29.—The court room of Police Justice Stronach was jammed to the limit today—black and white were there to hear the trial of the abandoned white woman. Maud Kelly, lately captured at Rocky Mount and brought here last Friday. She was convicted on evidence by three State's witnesses of unlawful relations with William Jones, a negro hackman. Last week Jones was sentenced for 18 months on the road. Today the Kelly woman, convicted of being his paramour, was give the same sentence. She introduced no witnesses in her own behalf. She has talked very freely in the station house and told the police that she had been North and could not stand the roughness of the life there, so came back to take her punishment, as she knew she would be given a sentence to the roads—really, to the workhouse, as women are not worked on the roads. From what can be picked up other white women than herself have acted with the inferior race as she has done, and this matter is to be looked into. Some people thought that a side sensation would develop in this case today, involving a prominent Federal official. He was present with his lawyers, but his name was not mentioned. Ex-Governor Aycock is one of his attorneys. The Kelly woman was sent to jail until she put up the $500 bail required. This was put up in cash. The woman says she is under 20 and admits that she has led a wicked life since she was 13. She bears the mark of dissipation and looks quite frail and unattractive.

—Durham, June 28.—Chief of Police J. E. Winston, of Youngsville, Franklin County, arrested Mrs. William Lambert and Walter Oakley here this morning on complaint of Mrs. Lambert's husband and this afternoon took the two back to their homes. The woman, with two children, one of which is but eight weeks old, has spent the day with the officers, who have been trying to reconcile her and her husband, who has exhibited the best of temper in the light of his troubles. The conduct of the wife is strange if it is not unprecedented and frequent. Oakley had been a tenant on the lands of Mr. Lambert; he is but 22 years old, and since he was seventeen became infatuated with the young wife of the Franklin farmer. He says that he began to love her at that time and never has ceased. They came here closely followed by the officer from Youngsville. The officer says he thinks the young fellow persuaded the woman to elope with him. He declares that she belongs to as good a family as there is in that county or anywhere, and that her taking up with a man of so much less her social and general equal is unaccountable. It is supposed that they will be heard in the Franklin court tomorrow.

THE COTTON MARKET.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, June 29.—The cotton market was very nervous and irregular today and while there was an active demand from leading bulls the close was barely steady at a net decline of 5 to 12 points as a result of realizing. The market opened barely steady at a decline of 5 to 10 points and soon sold about 8 to 13 points net lower in response to disappointing Liverpool futures, better weather reports, the idea that a bullish government condition report on Friday had been discounted and heavy realizing for over the approaching holidays. It also seemed as though some of the local professionals were selling short for a turn, but around 11.54 for December, leading bull interests became very heavy buyers, checking the decline.

For a time prices showed little change, with orders very well divided but the confidence shown by the bull party suggested that long lines would be carried over the government report and following reports from Washington that storm warnings had been ordered for Florida and the South Atlantic coast, the market turned decidedly firmer on covering by early sellers and re-buying by sold-out bulls.

The rally carried the active months about a point over the closing figures of the previous day, but in the later session prices weakened again under renewed realizing and the close was at about the lowest figures of the day on new crop months. A short notice for July delivery sold at 11.40 during the morning and July, regular delivery, closed at 11.47 bid.

Southern spot markets were unchanged to 1-8c higher. A canvass of 62 members of the local exchange indicated that the trade on the average is looking for a government bureau report of 77.6 per cent, against 81.1 per cent. last month.

THE DRY GOODS MARKET

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, June 29.—The dry goods markets ruled very firm. Spring dress goods will be shown next week by the large corporations. Men's wear lines are active for Spring. The cotton goods export trade is quiet and firm with higher prices named. Cotton yarns are firm and in slightly better inquiry from knitters. A meeting of cotton goods factors was held during the day to perfect further the gray goods contract on which the manufacturers associations have been working for some time.

NEW YORK PRODUCE MARKET.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, June 29.—Such expansion of activity and interest as occurred in today's stock market was traceable to the dealings in the industrial group and in a number of specialties. The growth of activity came from the buying side of the market and a fair showing of substantial gains in prices was the result. The news in the stock market, such as it was, followed these movements instead of preceding them and this kept up the impression of the narrow and professional nature of the market.

Reading, meantime, which was practically the only prominent stock which rose yesterday, was held back throughout the session. The May statement of Reading earnings shows some falling off in surplus, but the action of the stock was attributed rather to the effect of profit taking than to any positive depression caused by these figures. American Sugar was prompt to respond favorably to the published reports that the statute of limitations had been found to operate as a bar to the proposed criminal prosecution by the Federal authorities for the acts disclosed in the Pennsylvania Refining Comyany's litigation. The metal mining and smelting group was affected first in the copper and smelting sections. The copper stocks shared in the strength caused by favorable lead advices, although immediate reports from the copper trade were less satisfactory and prices of the metal declined in lead. The rising tendency in the wheat market was in face of highly encouraging advices regarding the grain crops. The good crop news was of some help to stocks.

The variety of the day for bonds was taken to show some reinvestment in anticipation of July distribution of profits. Total sales, par value, $5,466,000. U. S. Bonds were unchanged on call. Total sales today 632,200 shares.

Senator Kean placed the figure at $100,000,000.

With only one amendment pending when the Senate met at 10 o'clock, it was supposed that it soon would be put out of the way and that, in accordance with the unanimous agreement, the Senate would immediately take up the internal tax questions. But that amendment was a proposition for a duty of 10 cents a pound on tea and Mr. Tillman was behind it. When the South Carolina Senator wants anything he wants it very much and he pressed so hard and so long for his provision that it was after 2 o'clock before a vote was taken and the schedules thus disposed of.

There was another effort on the part of Mr. Owen to revert to the question of duties but in accordance with a previously announced determination, Senator Aldrich moved to lay on the table the Oklahoma Senator's motion which looked to the gradual reduction of all duties imposed under the terms of the bill, and it prevailed.

Notwithstanding Mr. Tillman's strenuous effort, his tea amendment was lost by the decisive vote of 55 to 18. The provision had the support of only two Democrats, Mr. Bailey joining the senior South Carolina Senator in favor of it. Mr. Tillman's colleague, Mr. Smith, was among those who cast their votes in the negative.

Senator Cummins began a speech in support of an income tax but had not concluded when the Senate adjourned.

During Mr. Cummins' comment on the receipts and expenditures of the government, Mr. Aldrich declared that with additional revenue to be provided by the corporation tax he would be greatly surprised if there is any deficit next year. His estimates of expenditures for the present year, when the tariff bill was reported to the Senate, he said, were about $9,000,000 too high, and he had, he said, knowledge himself that he had estimated within $2,000,000 of the annual receipts. The deficit for the present year, he added, would be about $60,000,000 and not so great as formerly estimated. Again, he declared that if the tariff bill becomes a law in its present form it would next year produce an income of $350,000,000.

Senator Flint will be in charge of the tariff bill tomorrow, as Senator Aldrich plans to leave the city for a few days recreation. He has made no announcement of his plans. Senator Root is expected to answer any criticisms of the corporation tax amendment so far as the legal phases of the subject are concerned.

The Senate at 6:17 P. M. adjourned.
